About CIPS the Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply

We are CIPS

The global membership organisation for procurement and supply, driving positive change across our profession. We provide education and tools for members. And we are the voice and standard, building a network across the globe.

Quality guaranteed

Our qualifications are recognised by Ofqual in England and regulators in various countries, demonstrating that they meet specific quality standards.

The Global Standard

CIPS Global Standard in procurement and supply, which is freely available, sets the benchmark for what good looks like in the profession.

A commercial organisation

CIPS helps governments, development agencies, and businesses around the world to excel in procurement and supply, supporting them to improve and deliver results and raise standards.

A global community

With offices in Africa, Asia, Australia, the Middle East, Europe and USA we lead in education and training, we provide information and tools, and we help build capability within organisations. Through all our work, we are the voice and standard, building a global network to power our profession.

How can CIPS help?

No matter where you are in the world or what sector you operate in, CIPS can help to ensure that your procurement and supply teams:

- Have the skills to spend your organisation's funds wisely and manage suppliers effectively
- Comply with relevant legislation
- Have the tools to build ethical and sustainable supply chains
- Continually evolve and deliver results against increasingly challenging targets
- Add value to the business and get the recognition they deserve
