

- ▶ is a not-for-profit membership organisation supporting members and connecting the profession across the globe
- ▶ supports public good, champions ethical and sustainable supply, promotes and encourages ED&I and supports anti-slavery in supply chains
- ▶ has offices around the world, and we reinvest our income to advance global best practice
- ▶ is a professional, awarding body with a range of flexible pathways to MCIPS
- ▶ hold a Royal Charter

CIPS for all you need, at every step of your career, to help you realise your full potential

Join the world's largest professional procurement and supply community today.

Accredited. Respected. Career-Ready.

Stand out with MCIPS, the globally recognised standard in procurement and supply.

Discover how CIPS membership transforms ambition into opportunity. Explore the benefits that will accelerate your career in procurement and supply.

cips.org

Introducing CIPS

The Chartered Institute of Procurement & Supply (CIPS) is the global membership organisation driving positive change, inspiring and powering the procurement and supply profession. Representing over 70,000 members globally, from students to procurement and supply leaders. Together with our members, we are driving the transformation of supply chains for a more ethical and sustainable society.

CIPS for all you need, at every step of your career, to help you realise your full potential.

What can CIPS membership do for me?

Here are just some of the benefits of being a member of CIPS:

Expertise and intelligence

- Knowledge & Insight newsletter
- CIPS Ethics test and elearning
- Knowledge & Insight hub

Support and guidance

- The Global Standard
- Skills training
- Networking opportunities

Career progress and success

- Continuing professional development (CPD)
- Salary Guide
- Newsletter and Jobs board

Community and connection

- Events
- Volunteering
- CIPS connect community platform

Credibility and recognition

- Digital membership certificates
- Professional register
- Chartered status

What kind of membership is right for me?

Affiliate membership

Affiliate membership is the first step on your journey to becoming MCIPS Chartered Professional. By choosing a CIPS accredited university programme you are entitled to free Affiliate Membership for the duration of your learning programme.

Upgrades to MCIPS

On successful completion of your programme you can apply for a membership upgrade to MCIPS. It's a simple process that you can do online and you will start to enjoy the greater rewards with MCIPS.

What is MCIPS?

Being MCIPS demonstrates you have achieved the globally recognised standard of excellence for the procurement and supply profession and you are a fully qualified member of CIPS.

MCIPS gives you a significant career advantage – those with MCIPS evidence professional relevance and credibility with increased demand from employers.

52% of employers globally look for MCIPS candidates when recruiting.*

Employers also demonstrate a willingness to pay more for accredited talent.

MCIPS earn 59% more than their peers who do not hold MCIPS.*

Accelerate your career. Transform your professional future.

Join the world's largest professional procurement and supply community today.

*CIPS Salary Guide 2025