

CIPS Syndicated Applied Learning Programme

CIPS Syndicated Applied Learning Programme provides your team with a non-exam, work-based route to MCIPS - a globally recognised accreditation, whilst delivering proven return on investment for your organisation.

By completing the Syndicated Applied Learning Programme, your team can achieve up to MCIPS Chartered professional status. Fusing their day-to-day roles with work-based assignments, your teams' success elevates the individual whilst adding value to your organisation.

Elevate your organisation's procurement and supply expertise and function

Work-based training

The outcomes of the CIPS Syndicated Applied Learning Programme are both development of the individual undertaking the programme as well as the overall elevation of the procurement and supply function within the organisation.

Supporting every journey

Two levels of achievement, including full MCIPS membership make up this programme, selected based on the most appropriate level of learning.

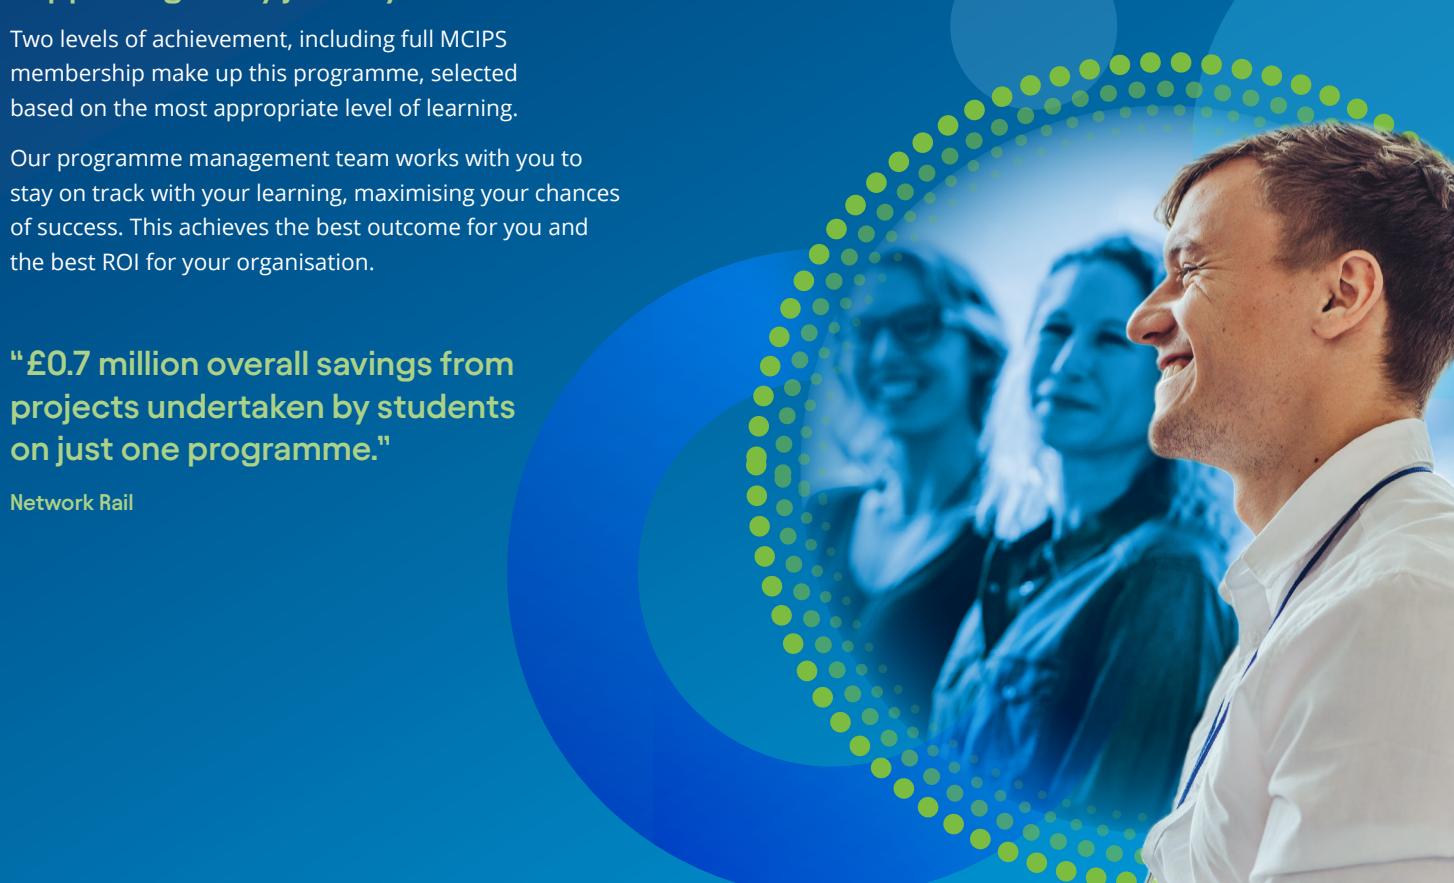

Our programme management team works with you to stay on track with your learning, maximising your chances of success. This achieves the best outcome for you and the best ROI for your organisation.

"£0.7 million overall savings from projects undertaken by students on just one programme."

Network Rail

Applied Learning Programme

If you have a sufficient number of employees who wish to pursue this route to MCIPS, you may wish to undertake a contextualised, Applied Learning Programme exclusive to participants from your organisation.

The benefits

○ No exams

Work-based assignments instead of exams drive learning directly back into the business and provide proven return on investment.

○ Recognised accreditation

Offers a professional, fully accredited route up to MCIPS and Chartered professional status.

○ Expand your influence

Learn from outside your direct sphere of influence with participants from multiple organisations and sectors.

○ Cost benefits

ROI and measurable cost benefits are proven outcomes of this applied learning approach.

○ See positive change

Realise positive changes in performance, attitude and behaviour that benefit organisational effectiveness and develops the individual.

Syndicated Applied Learning Programme levels

| | Practitioner | Advanced |
|------------------------------------|---|--|
| Content | Develops a robust understanding of procurement essentials | Builds professionalism to deliver greater organisational value and reduce risk |
| Level of learning | First year of an undergraduate degree | Honours degree |
| Duration | 12 Months | 18 Months |
| Outcome | Diploma membership | MCIPS - your professional license |
| Global Standards competency levels | Operational | Managerial and Professional |
| Entry criteria | None | Must hold CIPS Diploma membership or must complete an online competency assessment at the required level |

Developing individuals and strengthening organisations

Work-based training

The CIPS Syndicated Applied Learning Programme will not only develop individuals but also help to elevate the procurement and supply function within an organisation.

Undertaking a Syndicated Applied Learning Programme opens up the opportunity to share knowledge with other organisations who are on the programme.

Want to see how we can develop your procurement and supply team?

Get in touch with us: corporate.solutions@cips.org

www.cips.org/employers